BIO SKETCH

Jade Rebecca is a phenomenon. The multi-talented superstar in the making is a dancer, choreographer, actress, and performer. Our rising star was born in Philadelphia, raised in Southern New Jersey. She has been dancing and performing since the tender age of 6. Jade Rebecca studied four years of dance at Gloucester County Institute of Technology School of Performing Arts. This program prepared her to enter into a career in performing arts. She has studied at Eleone Dance Unlimited -Professional Dance Company Eleone Dance Theatre under the Director Shawn Lamere Williams where she was introduced to a dance experience that inspired and energized audiences of all ages. She trained in modern, lyrical jazz, African, contemporary and Ballet. Jade Rebecca also trained with Professional Dance Company I am Phresh. I am phresh Dance Academy the first and only hip hop based dance studio in the tri state area. Jade danced with their company for five years under the Director Smart Mark. Being apart of this professional dance experience opened opportunities to participate in Commercials, television appearances and winning top awards as the best hip hop competitions in the U.S. There she trained in hip hop, break dance, funk styles, krump, vogue, house etc. After years of hardwork and dedication, during the pandemic she was touched with a vision that soon became her new mission. She decided to use her talent and passion to inspire the world. She decided it was time to elevate her talents and take things to the next level. Her first single Keep Goin is dedicated to anyone thinking of giving up. The message is clear and simple. Keep Goin, Keep Pushin!! Be on the lookout for everything she has coming because Jade Rebecca is destined for greatness.
